UNIVERSAL PERSONNEL SECURITY TRAINING AND ALLIED SERVICES

VOLUME II ISSUE IV

OCT, NOV, DEC 2022

FROM EDITOR'S DESK

Let me extend Season's greetings and best wishes to the readers on behalf of Universal and its CMD, Capt Uttam P Patil, on the occasion of the new year. Let me also proudly state that we have successfully tackled the challenges of festive season and have protected premises of our valued clients from human and natural threats like burglary, fire etc. Our emphasis on continuous training activity enabled our guards to tackle many near-disaster situations successfully.

This last quarter of the calendar year also saw the dispatch of Diwali Sweets to battalion each of Garhwal Rifles, Rashtriya Rifles and Garhwal Scouts, as a token of our gratitude to our valiant jawans doing duty at far flung border areas. It's a love's labour for Universal wherein Chairman's family members personally supervise preparation of the sweets.

New Year has some serious portends, what with war and strife around the world, recessionary trends in many parts especially the western world, and instability in our immediate neighbourhood. We are sure our leadership will steer us through the troubled times successfully, as it did in the previous two years.

DIWALI SWEETS DISTRIBUTION TO THE SOLDIERS

Jai Jawan Jai Kisan, a term coined by the second Prime Minister of India, Lal Bahadur Shastri, demonstrates the value that we Indians give to the two most important people in the country, a soldier and a farmer. While one feeds us, another protect us. This festive season, we remember and salute the selfless brave soldiers of our country who perform duty while far away from their loved ones, at borders, facing hardships and challenges, in the harshest weather conditions, safeguarding our country.

During this year's Diwali also we continued our tradition of sending Diwali sweets to our soldiers at the border as a part of our gratitude towards their sacrifices in safeguarding our motherland. This year we proudly distributed Diwali Sweets to one battalion each of Garhwal Rifles, Assam Rifles and Garhwal Scouts. Also this year we distributed Diwali Sweets to organizations viz. Orphanage "Avni" at Kolhapur and Satara, Helpers of the Handicapped at Kolhapur, "Matoshree" - Old age home at Kolhapur, as a social obligations to the needy spheres of society.
