UNIVERSAL PERSONNEL SECURITY TRAINING & ALLIED SERVICES

VOLUME III ISSUE II

APR, MAY & JUN 2023

From Editor's Desk :

Sowing season is in full swing with all gaiety after the late arrival of monsoon. We at Universal are also quite elated because a lot of new associations have been made during the quarter gone by which are a result of sustained efforts by Team Universal over a long period. We take this as a collective compliment to the quality of our guarding personnel, our holistic approach to security issues of the clients, the cost effectiveness that we bring in our operations thanks to pragmatic approach and divine combination of technology and human resources. Another aspect of our operations of which we are justly proud, is statutory compliance which is borne out by appreciation letters received from Government of India for two successive years for GST compliance. Friends, this is a hard earned appreciation not easy to get! So this should reassure our esteemed patrons about compliance.

Vagaries of weather God are seen across the country, with extreme rainfall at many places in north and east deficient elsewhere. We advise our patrons to revisit their disaster preparedness plans to be prepared for the rainy day. Universal will of course be too happy to help in preparation and practice of such plans.
